PROVISIONAL ELECTION

The Honorable Commissioner for Patents
Washington, District of Columbia 20231

Dear Sir:

In response to the Office Action dated June 5, 2008, the applicant provisionally elects, with traverse, Group INa, claims 94-97 and 99, for further reexamination on the merits in the present application.

The applicant respectfully traverses the restriction requirement because the PTO has not carried forward its burden of proof to establish distinctness for each and every claim group. In particular, MPEP

§ 802 states:

If two or more independent and distinct inventions are claimed in one application, the Director may require the application to be restricted to one of the inventions.

Furthermore, MPEP § 803 provides:

If the search and examination of an entire application can be made without serious burden, the Examiner must examine it on the merits, even though it includes claims to distinct or independent inventions.

In this case, the examiner has made distinctions between claim groups that are clearly not independent and distinct inventions, nor would the examiner face a serious burden if certain claim groups were searched together.

For example, the examiner has treated claims 44-45, 50-53 and 93 as a single claim group (Species 1G) and claims 46-53 and 93 as another claim group (Species 1H). Claims 44, 46 and 49 are identical except that in claim 44 the bottom, sides and top of the habitat are resistant to penetration by plant roots, in claim 46 only the bottom and sides are resistant to penetration by plant roots, and in claim 49 only the sides are resistant to penetration by plant roots. There is no logical basis for treating claim 44 any differently than claims 46 and 49; nonetheless, the examiner has segregated these claims into separate claim groups.

Accordingly, the applicant respectfully traverses the outstanding election requirement. Although the applicant acknowledges that a restriction requirement is appropriate in this case, the applicant also feels that the examiner may have gone overboard in establishing the separate claim groups.

Respectfully submitted,

Antoinette M. Tease
